

Department of Communication Studies
Montclair State University
Montclair, NJ

Assoc/Full Prof Dept Chair in Applied Communication

The Dept. of Communication Studies invites applicants for a senior-level tenure track position. Dept. has approx. 400 UG and 35 graduate students and coordinates Basic Speech GenEd program. Chair provides academic leadership and vision for dept. Successful candidate will mentor new faculty; support faculty scholarship, publishing, and professional activities; lead curriculum development; and represent the dept. to the university. Applicants should have a Comm Theory specialization, ability to teach Comm Theory, Nonverbal, Persuasion, Applied Comm, and Comm Research. Qual: Ph.D. in Comm Studies required; min. 8 yrs coll/univ. teaching; evidence of experience in dept administration; established research agenda; strong publication record; strong record of balanced commitment to teaching, service, scholarship.

All Applicants should submit a letter describing teaching and research interests and experiences; a current vitae; student evaluations; sample course syllabi; graduate transcripts; and 3 letters of reference to:

Dr. Christine Lemesianou
Dept of Communication Studies
1 Normal Ave, LI 050
Montclair State University
Montclair, NJ 07043.

Screening begins immediately and will continue until positions are filled. Start date is September, 2008.