

Department of Communication Studies
Montclair State University
Montclair, NJ

Assistant Prof in Applied Communication

Full time tenure track faculty member to teach UG and Grad courses in Applied Communication/Communication technology, core Comm courses; assist in student advisement; integrate communication technology into dept coursework; direct grad theses; participate in dept curriculum/program development. Qual: Ph.D. required in Communication with experience/training in Applied Communication and communication technologies; min. 3 years coll/univ teaching, established research agenda with a record of scholarly publications along with strong record indicating commitment to teaching, scholarship and service.

All Applicants should submit a letter describing teaching and research interests and experiences; a current vitae; student evaluations; sample course syllabi; graduate transcripts; and 3 letters of reference to:

Dr. Christine Lemesianou
Dept of Communication Studies
1 Normal Ave, LI 050
Montclair State University
Montclair, NJ 07043.

Screening begins immediately and will continue until positions are filled. Start date is September, 2008.